The Simple Explanation of your Artist Release Form

VideoCentricity.Net a.k.a. Fidmania Hosting wants to record your artistic performance for use on the internet

This performance is hosted as an on-demand video presentation like YouTube and other similar websites.

CONDITIONS SIMPLY EXPLAINED

- ◆ We will edit and create a final cut of your performance and showcase your video in an attractive setting, We will not use any part of the recording to embarrass you in any 'Bloopers', i.e. We will edit out and destroy any mistakes. Nor will we sell or give any footage to any third party company who might use it in contests, television shows, or other film industry footage
- ◆ We will shoot the video, edit it and do any post-production at no cost to you whatsoever.
- ◆ In return you agree to not expect any future compensation in any way for this video performance.
- ◆ We will use your performer-name, likeness, image, voice, appearance and performance in the video as the actual video and use a still photograph from the video as a link to your performance video This is because the internet program uses a still picture which is clicked before loading and running your actual performance
- ◆ We request artistic control of the final product. This will include selection of background and addition of a copyright notice. Editing will where possible remove glitches, pauses and unwanted footage to produce a harmonious final result
- ◆ Your video will appear beside other similar artists, grouped by performance-type such as Vocalist, Comedian, Guitarist etc. There will be advertising panels elsewhere on the website pages which ultimately pays for the running of the website We may also request the use of your image for use in printed promotions or publicizing of the site but we will show you any such promotional material for your approval.
- ◆ You must confirm that you have the right to enter into this Agreement. If you are already signed to a record company that may be a problem, so we would rather record performers who don't have such a prior contract. On the other hand if you are a superb performer with a record contract then we will request that you get clearance from the company before making any video recording so that nobody gets sued later..
- ◆ You have the right to withdraw and terminate this contract at any time and have your video removed from the Producers internet showcase.

This should be a win-win opportunity for both parties but if you have any misgiving, please discuss it with a friend or adviser before you enter into the agreement.
